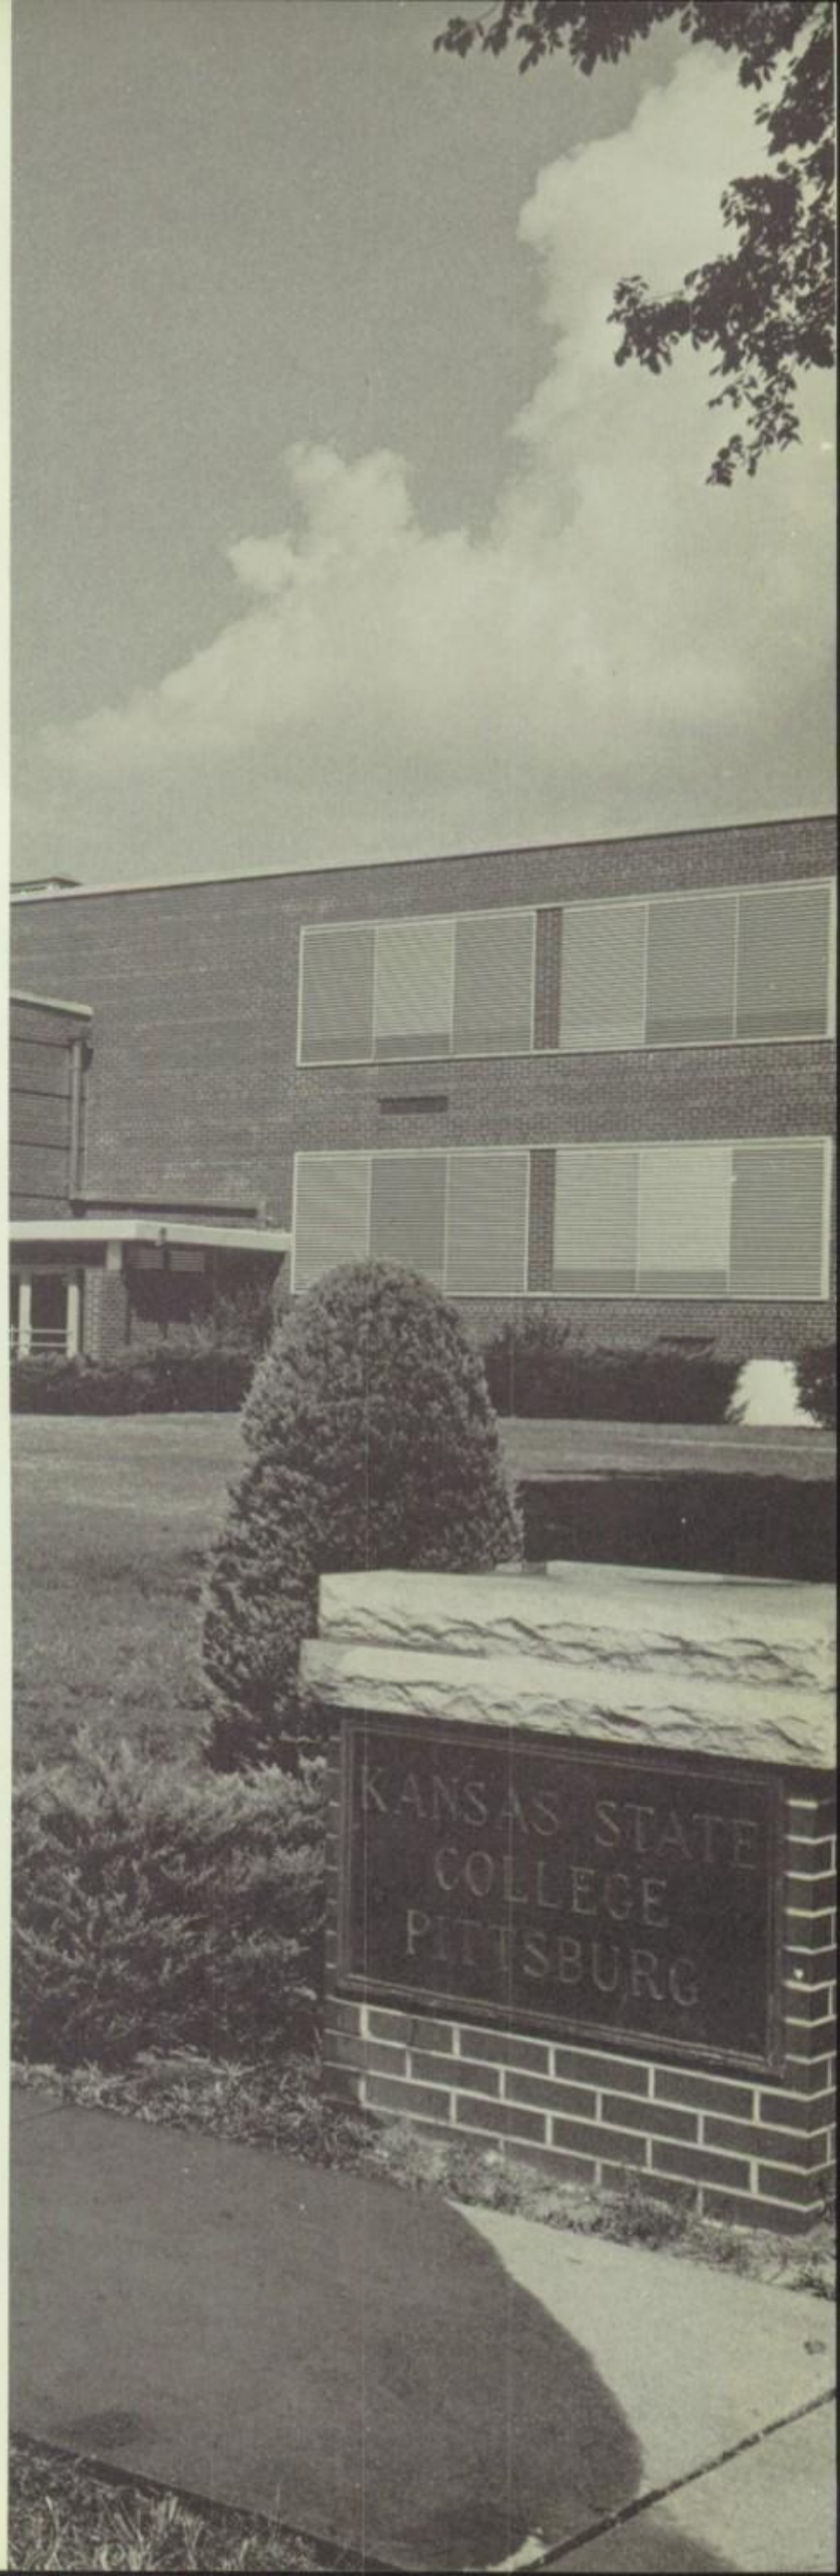
50TH ANNIVERSARY

College High

Pittsburg, Kansas

Diane Miles, Editor



Foreword

The past year has been an eventful one. Our headlines have been full of news of the Negroes' push for equal rights, Pope Paul VI's Ecumenical Council, the crisis in Viet Nam, and the Fischer quintuplets of Aberdeen, North Dakota. As life for most of us is really beginning, for many it came to an abrupt end during the past months. John F. Kennedy, Aldous Huxley, King Paul of Greece, Georges Braque, Estes Kefauver, and Paul Lawrence Marsh were taken from us.

1963-64 marked another less-heralded, yet important event--the fiftieth anniversary of College High School. Our school's history began in 1913 as KSTC President Brandenburg called a group of high school students together to establish a laboratory school for the training of secondary school teachers. John Lance, destined to become one of the most successful college basketball coaches in the U.S., was elected first student body president. In 1926 an organization with grades seven through twelve was established. From 1913 until 1952, College High occupied a section of Russ Hall, but in 1952 it was moved into its present quarters, "on the corner, by the oval..".

The 1963 fall semester began as usual for the students of College High School--our football team fought hard, and the debate team won its share of trophies, and the Student Council kept things going and tidy. In January, our school achieved one of its major triumphs. The team of Newton-Thompkins-Malle-Wehmeyer brought home the state debating championship, and soon thereafter, Coach Harold Loy was named Kansas High School Speech Teacher of the year.

The basketball season came and went...Despite the fact that the basketball team experienced a streak of poor luck, they were able to defeat one of the better teams in the state--the Erie Red Devils. Bob Emerson was the second highest scorer in the league missing the top honors by only one point, as the year moved along into the final weeks of school.

The Junior Carnival, "The Night of January Sixteenth," and the Junior-Senior Prom all helped speed the approach of the year's end. Then on May 25, 1964 the students, faculty, and friends of College High were saddened by the death of their dedicated principal, Paul Lawrence (Larry) Marsh.

A few days later, another class of seniors graduated and the year ended. That was the year that was, and this yearbook is the record of that year.

Senior High Cheerleaders

Mary Hallacy--Senior

Sharon Badalack--Senior

Cindy Holliday--Sophomore

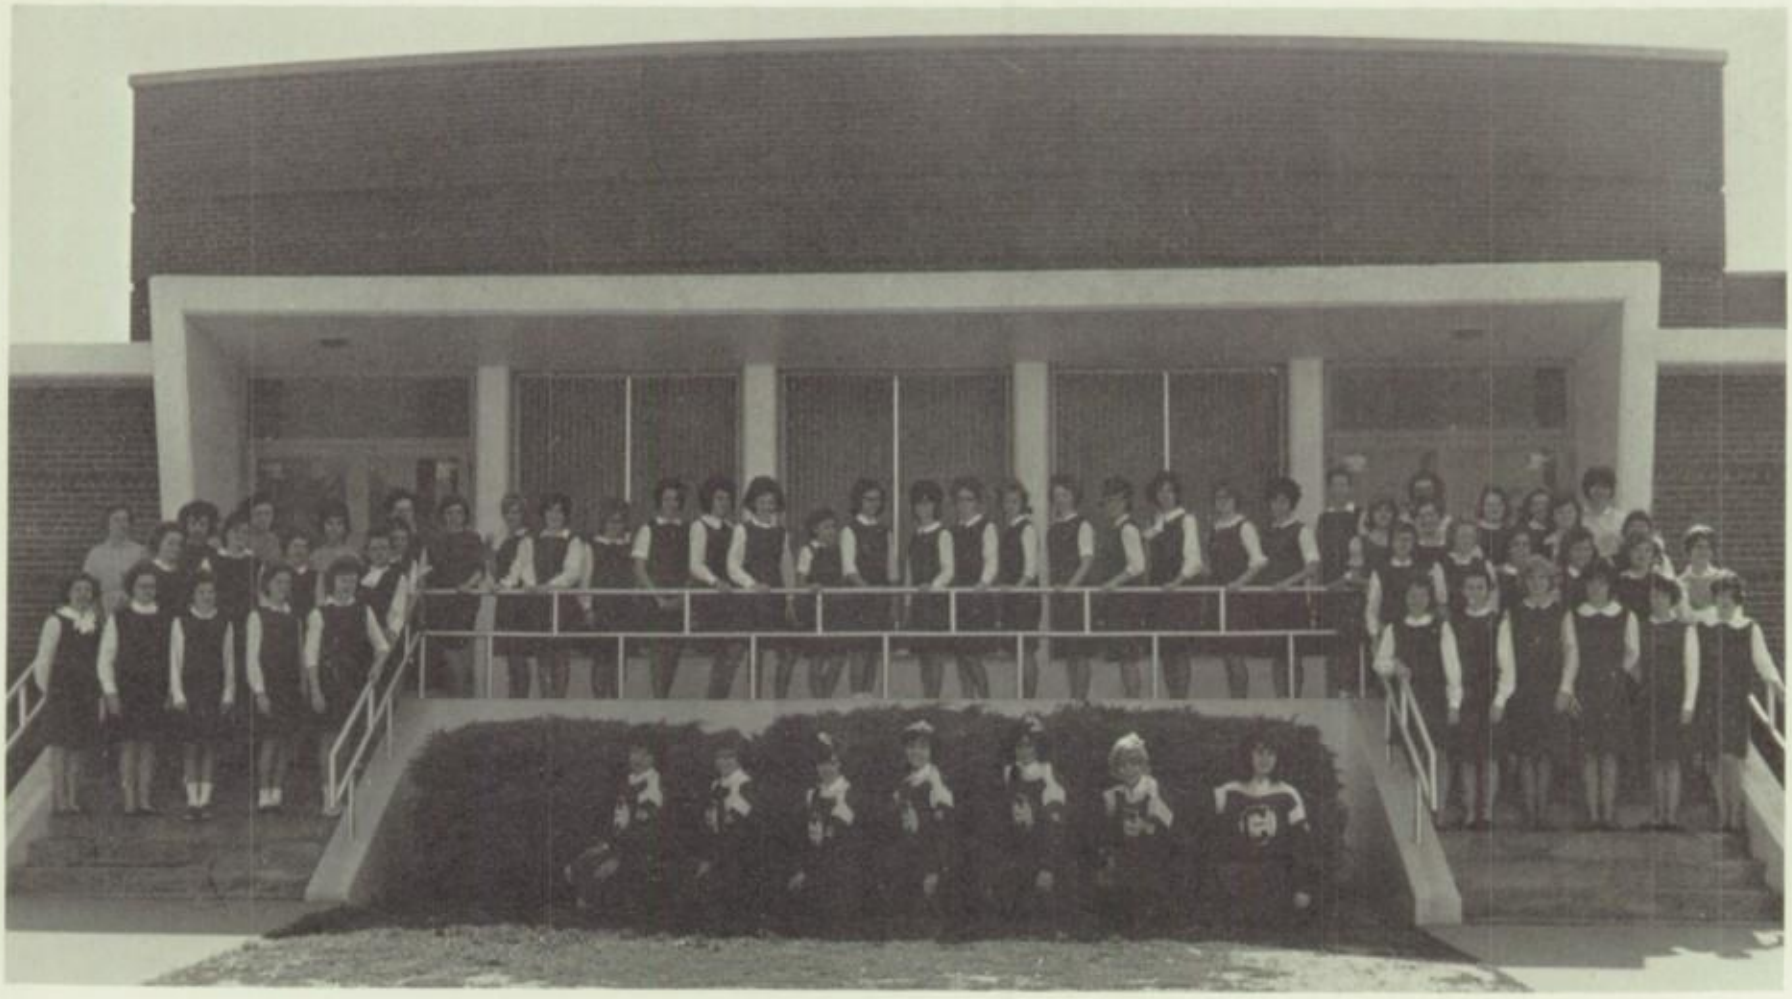
Susan Emerson--Sophomore

Jackie Gendusa--Junior

Nancy Deill--Junior

Karrolyn Badalack--Freshman

The Cheerleaders for each year are elected at the end of the previous year. This enables them to practice and attend helpful clinics before the first football game in the fall. The girls wear uniforms of red and white sweaters with red skirts. These colorful uniforms serve as fitting adornment for the girls who seek to inspire the student body with a spirit of pep and pride at the games.



KNEELING: Mary Hallacy, Sharon Badalack, Karrolyn Badalack, Jackie Gendusa, Cindy Holliday, Susan Emerson, Nancy Deill. FIRST ROW: Emily Thompkins, Carolyn Grotheer, Karen Johnson, Nell Holt, Candy Bradley-----Janet Penny, Linda Clothier, Judy Roderick, Tess Keeney, Sherry Scott, Jeanne MacPhail. The junior high basketball team, divided into Regulars and Midgets according to height, had a very successful year. The Regulars finished the year with 8 wins and 2 losses and won first place in the league tournament. The Midgets had some members who were too tall so officially their games were forfeited. They won 4 games and lost 4.

Spanish Club

This year's Spanish Club, sponsored by Señor Garcia, benefited from many rewarding and profitable experiences. Bi-weekly meetings were held and numerous money-making projects resulted in a trip to the K.U. Pan-American Day on May 2.

F.H.A.

The F.H.A., sponsored by Miss Hilma Davis, held a bake sale and a winter Mother-Daughter potluck dinner. Many of the girls earned their Junior and Chapter degrees during the year.
Suzanne Stewart and Evelyn Grotheer attended the F.H.A. camp in June.

Judo is a much mis-judged sport. As a modern competitive sport, it is far removed from the brutal self-defense method, JUJITSU. Judo is a form of scientific wrestling from a standing position. The object is to either throw the opponent to the mat; rendering him in a position whereby he must submit; or hold him under control for 30 seconds. The rewards of Judo are a physically strong body, self-confidence, and the opportunity to build fast reflexes. College High's Judo Club was new this year, but there were 15 members on the roll. Although the Club had no chance to meet other competitive teams this year, matches with other schools are viewed in a hopeful light for next year.

NFL

This year the National Forensics League Chapter of C.H.S. has to its credit two memorable events. The first of these was the placing first at the Class B State Tournament using the four-man team of Steve Newton, Peggy Tompkins, Arthur Malle, and Sue Whemeyer. The second great event was Mr. Loy's qualifying for a diamond in his NFL pin. This means that by only counting 1/10 of his students points Mr. Loy earned over 13,000 points. Mr. Loy also was selected by the Kansas Speech Association for the honor of Top High School Speech Teacher in the State.

Band

The band this year gave two concerts and marched in two parades, one of which was held in Pittsburg. The band also played at many of the football games, but were slightly handicapped because some of the trumpet players were involved in the team..However, the majorettes performed in various twirling demonstrations throughout the year.

Orchestra

The Orchestra and Choir gave a joint concert on March 12 of this year. One of the highlights of this concert was the "Polovetsian Dances" from the ballet Prince Igor. The program for this concert appears on the previous page. The Polovetsian Dances were also performed at Columbus and Baxter Springs when the groups took a joint tour in the Spring.

The tour also featured a couple of solo numbers on the new harp with harpist Lynn Adams playing.
